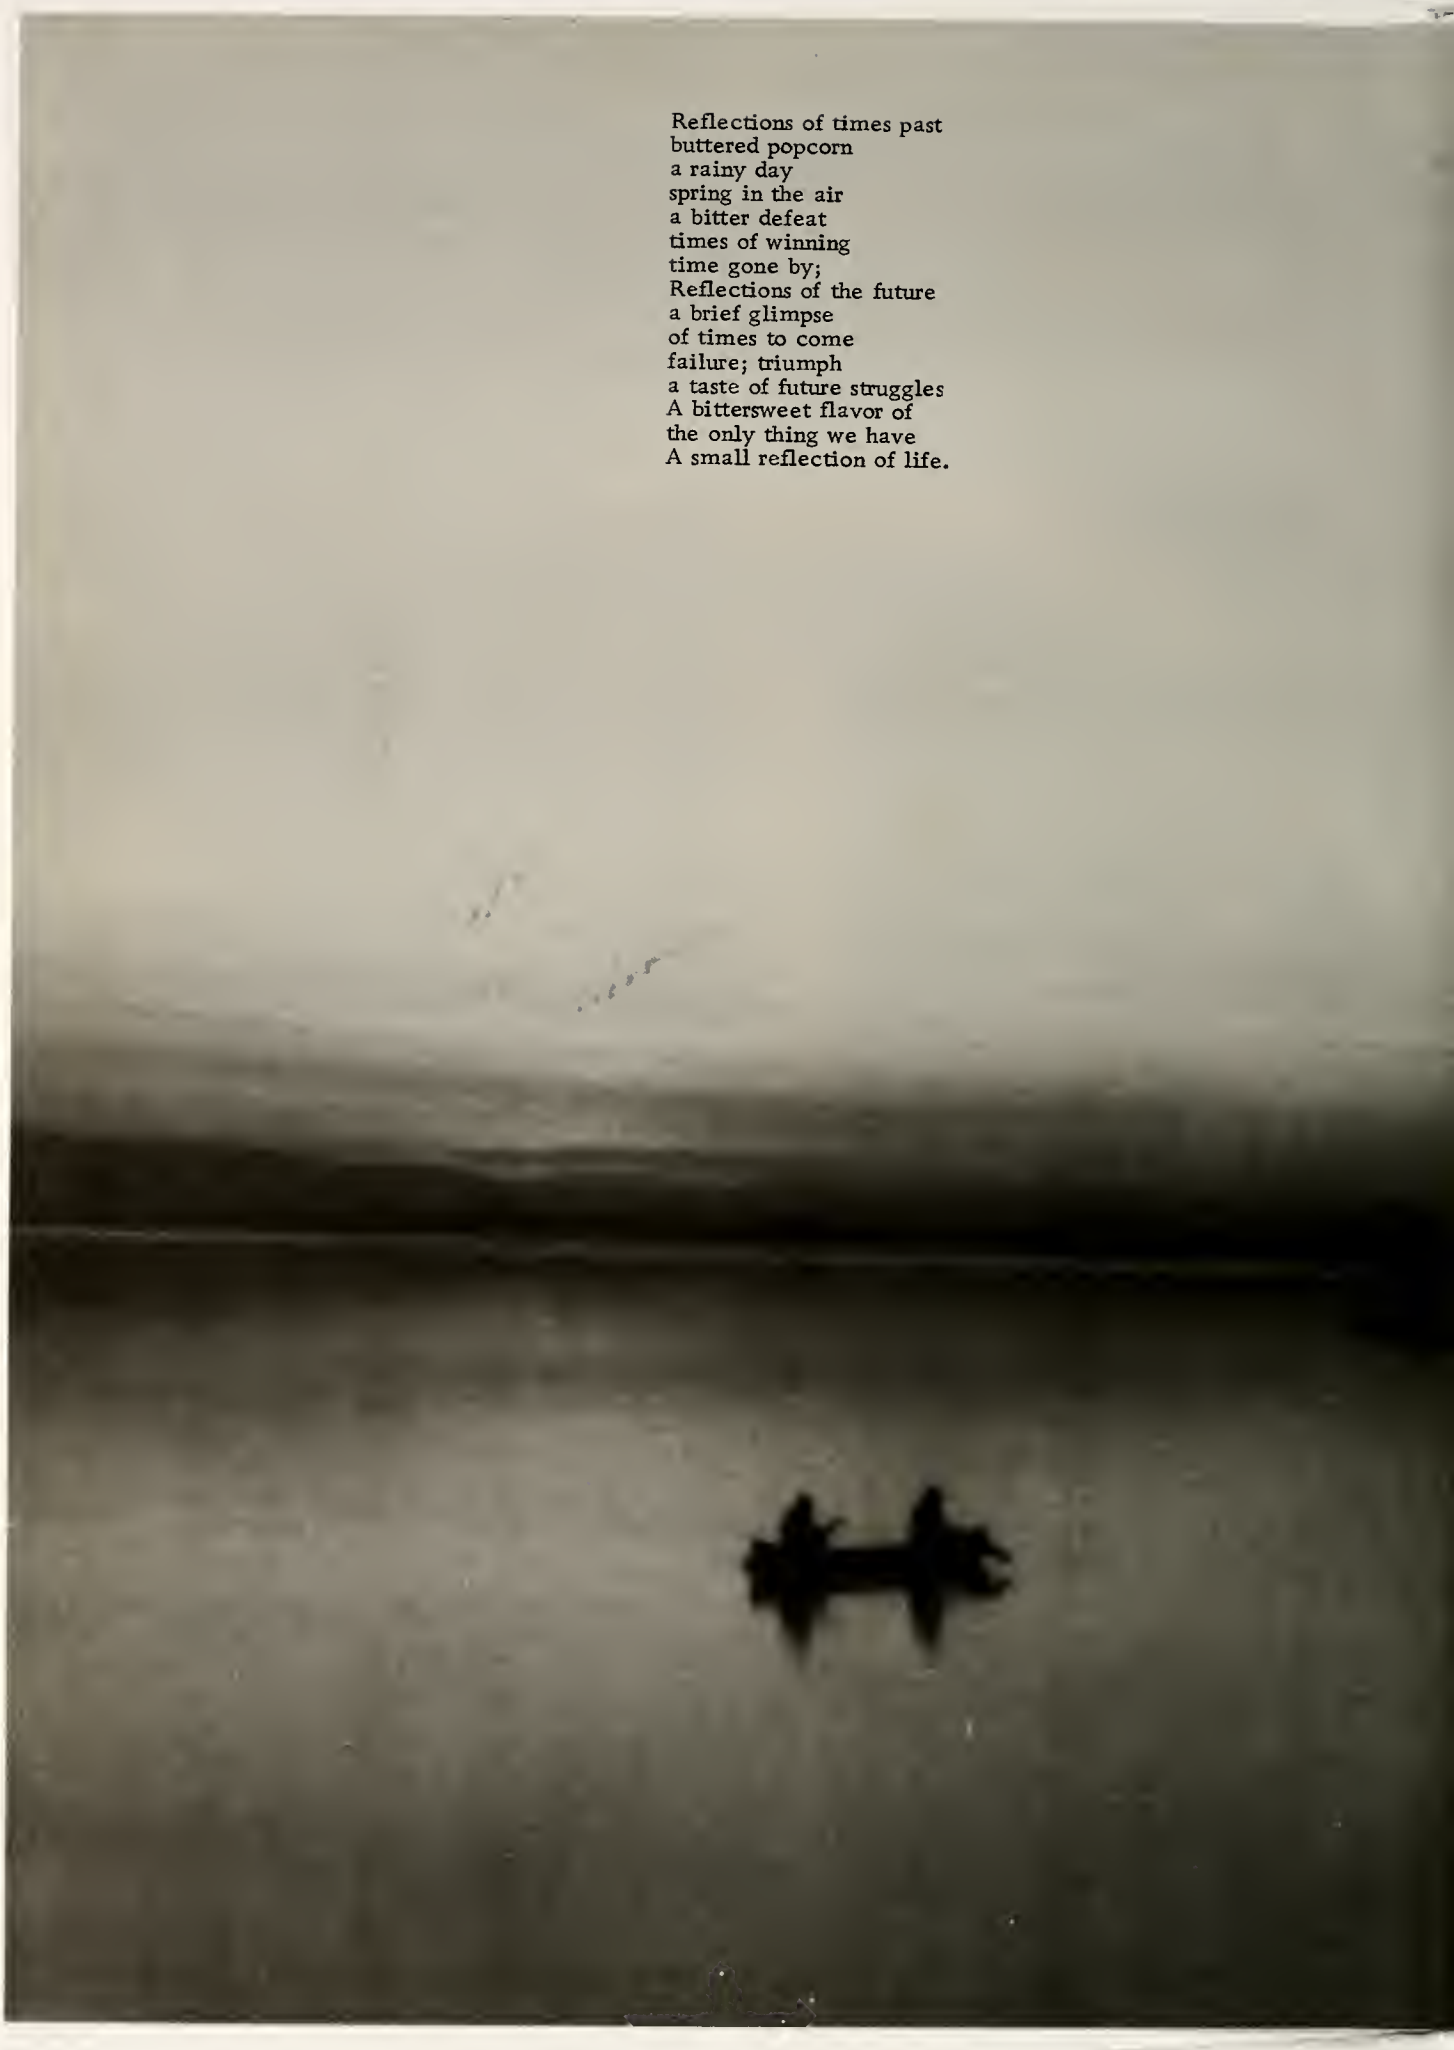
HIGH SCHOOL



Reflections of times past
buttered popcorn
a rainy day
spring in the air
a bitter defeat
times of winning time gone by;
Reflections of the future
a brief glimpse of times to come
failure; triumph
a taste of future struggles
A bittersweet flavor of
the only thing we have
A small reflection of life.

In honor of those who have guided, helped and loved us, we would like to dedicate this annual to you, our friends, teachers and especially our parents. Because you were not afraid to spend extra time in helping us learn, keeping us moving in the right direction and pushing us along when we started to give up, you deserve more than we could ever give you in return. This dedication is only a token of our thanks to you.

May you be repayed for all the time and effort you have given for us. We, the Annual Staff of 1971 would like to thank you sincerely.

The Big Night had arrived---Commencement, 1971. As Juniors, David King and Shari Mulder led the Processional, parents and friends looked on with mixed emotions.

Mr. Kieckbusch introduced the top 10% of the class, who were Orville Hess, Doug Ecton and Debbie Seeman. The topic for their speeches was "The Will to Do; The Soul to Dare".

The Commencement speaker was Mr. Howard C. Porter, President of Billings Business College. His topic was "The Past is the Prologue".

Mr. Kieckbusch introduced the graduating class and Mr. Gordon Seeman, Chairman of the Board of Trustees, awarded diplomas.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

The Senior Class was kept busy making money so they could go on their Sneak Trip in the spring. They sold hundreds of hot dogs and had bake sales and cake raffles all winter. Not only did the Seniors participate in class activities, but they also took part in many extra-curricular functions.

After submitting to inhumane tortures on initiation day, the Freshmen got down to perfecting their many talents, such as insubordination to upper classmen and a rivalry for the highest grade point average between the two homerooms. They also used a very successful method to earn money, that is, by literally selling themselves in a slave auction. The class of 1974 was very enthusiastic in extra curricular activities. Their float took first in the Homecoming Parade and their skit for Stunt Night, "The Farmers Daughter", took second place.

Many Freshman belonged to various school activities. Some took an active part in sports and many helped in the journalism area by reporting for the school paper. Many were members of band and chorus and various other school activities.

With the 1970-71 school year closed, they only have one thought in mind: putting next year's Frosh through as much torture as they were submitted to this past year.

THE HESSIANS

The 1971 Annual Staff and the students of Manhattan High would like to dedicate this page to the Senior Twins Orville & Bill Hess for their outstanding performance in cross country and track.

Through three years of hard work, they have come to be known through-out the state as two of the top, One and Two Milers.

Congratulations on your fine records; well earned!

GIRLS' CROSS COUNTRY TEAM

L to R: Vickie Bender; Kim Forsgren; Glenda Younkin; Kim Stucky; Connie Cruz, Janet Pingel; Joy Kallestad.

The Girls' Cross Country Team grew to seven strong members in the 1970 season. These energetic girls worked hard to win First Place in the Divisional Meet. Faced with tough competition from various other Class B schools, the girls did an outstanding job and proved Manhattan High's spirit and ability again.

QUEEN AND COURT

Candidates for Homecoming Queen were chosen by vote to represent their classes. The Student Body then voted on one candidate who reined as Queen over the 1970 Homecoming festivities. Joy Kallestad, Junior candidate, was crowned Queen during halftime. Other candidates were Shelia McMurray; Senior, Elaine Ecton Sophomore, and Nancy Riggs; Freshman.

HOMECOMING HIGHLIGHTS

On our Homecoming Day September 2S, 1970, the Manhattan Tigers played the Belgrade Panthers. During half-time, Joy Kallestad was crowned Homecoming Queen of Manhattan High for 1970, by Doug Ecton co-captain of the football team. That night, the Student Council of Manhattan High sponsored a home-coming dance with music provided by the Inside Out.

SNOW BALL

This year, for the first time ever, Manhattan High held a Snowball Dance sponsored by the Pep Club. Queen and King candidates were chosen from Seniors, who were in Pep Club, and 'M' Club. Queen candidates were Shelia McMurray, Mary Lou Skinner, and Diane Rider. Candidates for King were Doug Ecton, Randy Chaney and Bill Hess. Chosen by the Student Body to reign over the 1971 Snowball, as Queen and King, were Diane Rider and Bill Hess. Music was provided by Mr. Francis White and his small combo band from Three Forks.

Remembrance is the sweetest flower
Of all the world's perfuming;
Memory guards it, sun and shower,
Friendship keeps it blooming.

Debbie Deenan

What is the purpose of an ANNUAL? I believe it to be that of capturing moments and emotions and setting them down so they may be re-lived again. In building a book of memories, it is also important not only to bring the majority of the students back in time, but also to help the individual re-live a portion of life long forgotten.

I, as Editor, have been fortunate to have had for my staff, members of the four high school classes; they have been exceedingly loyal and faithful, which is a necessity to produce an outstanding annual, which I believe this annual is.

I hope all of you will be able to go back in time and capture a rare moment by the memories portrayed.

Thank you so much!
